

My Lord, WHAT A NIGHT

by Deborah Brevoort

When world-famous singer Marian Anderson is turned away from a hotel because of her race, she finds an unexpected host in Albert Einstein. What begins as a simple act of hospitality grows into a friendship based on their mutual love of music and commitment to human rights. Featuring a cast of four playing real-life historical figures – each with a unique perspective on how to effect change – this moving play is about courage, justice and our shared humanity.

THE HEART SELLERS

by Lloyd Suh

Step back to 1973 – Soul Train, Watergate, Disney World – when two recent newcomers meet by chance in the supermarket just before Thanksgiving. While their medical-resident husbands work through the night, the young women share stories about their new lives... and how to cook a frozen turkey. Filled with heart and humor, this "laugh-aloud love letter to friendship" (BroadwayWorld) explores what it takes to make a new home.

TAKE ME America

Music & Additional Lyrics by Neil Berg
Book & Lyrics by Bill Nabel

Join us for the world premiere of a rousing new musical full of heart and soul by Neil Berg (The Sabbath Girl) and Bill Nabel. It's 2015 and Gary Campbell plans on saving the world. But it's only his first day on the job as an immigrant official and he confronts heartbreak – and hope – as he listens to the challenges and dreams of those looking to forge new lives in the U.S. ... and then must decide their fate.

IN PLAIN SIGHT

by Michael McKeever

The author of Daniel's Husband returns to Penguin to ignite the stage with his customary wit, humor, savvy, and gut-wrenching twists. After 11 years together, Elliot and Alan are about to tie the knot. Or are they? How do you reconcile choices made to escape an unforgiving past when they undermine who you are today? The past, present, and future collide as one family attempts to deal with buried secrets and a rapidly changing world. World premiere.

PENGUIN REP THEATRE

an award-winning professional theatre founded in 1977, is one of the region's most enduring cultural institutions, entertaining thousands each year at its home – a repurposed 1880s hay barn in historic Stony Point, NY – with works originally presented by Penguin then moving to Off-Broadway and to stages across the country and around the world.

Producing new plays in an intimate venue, Penguin Rep offers the excitement and thrill of experiencing original dramatic works in the scenic lower Hudson Valley.

"WHERE THEATERGOERS EXPERIENCE MAGIC TIME AFTER TIME." Iohud.

Penguin Rep is located 35 minutes north of the GW Bridge, 20 minutes from the TZ Bridge, and 15 minutes south of the Bear Mountain Bridge – and is easily accessible via the Palisades Parkway and Route 9W.

Coming from New York City? Thursdays, take a ride on Metro North along the majestic Hudson River to Ossining, then take the New York Waterways Ferry across the river to Haverstraw. The theatre is a 10-minute taxi ride away. For more information, visit penguinrep.org/visit-us or call (845) 786-2873.

PENGUIN TAKES OFF!

As we present our 49th season in Stony Point, productions originally seen at the barn transfer to Off-Broadway and beyond. See Penguin's acclaimed production of Tom Dudzick's Miracle on South Division Street at The Sheen Center for Thought & Culture this spring. This summer, catch Robert Montano's Small on 42nd Street, and this fall, John J. Wooten's Flawless will transfer to Premiere Stages in New Jersey and Cary Gitter's The Steel Man to 59E59 Theaters. Visit penguinrep.org for more info.
