POPCORN FALLS

By JAMES HINDMAN

MAY 5-MAY 28

A zany bunch of characters must band together to save Popcorn Falls from bankruptcy after its only claim to fame – its waterfall – dries up! The town's last chance is a grant that can only be used if it produces a show in a week. Can the intrepid townspeople rise to the occasion and show that there's no business like show biz? A "feel-good show" (the New York Times) by an author of Now Comes the Fun Part.

INCIDENT AT OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP

By KATIE FORGETTE

JUNE 23-JULY 16

Travel back to the era of bell bottoms, cassette tapes and landline phones in this uproarious comedy. It's 1973 and the O'Shea family faces a crisis of biblical proportions when a conversation about "the birds and the bees" threatens to turn into a parish-wide scandal. With their good name at stake, the household must work together to preserve their honor and prove that nothing is more sacred than family.

GENE & GILDA

By CARY GITTER

AUG. 4-AUG. 27

Beloved entertainers Gene Wilder and Gilda Radner come to vivid life in this hilarious and heartfelt new play from the author of The Sabbath Girl and The Virtuous Life of Joseph Andrews. Follow the famous couple from their first meeting through their personal and professional ups and downs, all the way to their poignant farewell. Don't miss this intimate portrait of two comic legends in love – and the lives they led beyond the laughter. World premiere.

LET THERE BE LOVE

By KWAME KWEI-ARMAH

SEPT. 22-OCT. 15

Arthur, a West Indian immigrant living in London, is gruff, grumpy, and tired of growing old. When his daughter hires a young caregiver from Poland to look after him, he is forced to reckon with his past. This humorous and moving family drama explores the powerful grip of memory and longing that lies at the heart of all immigrant experiences – and what can happen when, at any age, we welcome new possibilities. New York premiere.
